Anna Jordan Brinkley Historically Black College & University (HBCU)

This scholarship is named after Mrs. Anna Jordan Brinkley, a woman deeply involved in Virginia Beach civic affairs, social services and the court system.

The Virginia Beach Pearls Foundation will award this $1000 scholarship to an African American female high school senior who plans to attend a Historically Black College or University during the upcoming year.

All student evaluations will be evaluated on the following criteria:

1. Reside in Virginia Beach and attend a Virginia Beach Public School.
2. Scholastic Achievement
 - A minimum 3.0 GPA is required.
 - A sealed official high school transcript must be submitted with the application.
3. Letters of Recommendation
 - Two letters of recommendation from individuals with personal knowledge of the applicant's abilities must accompany the scholarship application.
 - One of the two recommendation letters must be from a high school teacher or counselor. Letters from relatives are NOT acceptable.
4. Typed essay (200 words minimum; double spaced) describing the following:
 - Why have you decided to attend a Historically Black College & University?
5. Interview
 - A video answering the following questions . Please email video to lgoscholars@gmail.com
 - What is your impression of an HBCU versus a non-HBCU?
 - What do you think you will gain from attending an HBCU?
 - Which HBCU are you most interested in?
 - How will you get involved in your university?
 - What colleges have you applied to? Where have you been accepted and what are your top three?
 - Why should the scholarship committee award you the Anna Jordan Brinkley Scholarship?

Please note: The Virginia Beach Pearls Foundation must receive official notification from a college or university by the stated deadline regarding the scholarship recipient's enrollment status before the scholarship is officially awarded.

All scholarship recipients must attend the Tenacious Teens Tomorrow Leaders Gala in order to receive the scholarship held in March. Two tickets are reserved for the scholarship recipient and one guest. Winner will be notified by Scholarship Committee Chairman.
